

ACADEMIA

No. 1 (41) 2014

The Magazine of the Polish Academy of Sciences

20

37

42

Focus on

Blowing Hot and Cold

We are concerned by global warming, because today's climate change, moving too fast, poses a threat

– notes Prof. Mirosław Miętus

Research in Progress

Frustrated Crystals

Not being able to carry out our plans frequently leads to frustration. Can a similar phenomenon occur in physics?

– Prof. Andrzej M. Oleś asks

Briefly Speaking

Tyranny of Our Own Device

There are two forms of liberalism in Poland: a social liberalism whose main enemy is traditionalism, and a market fundamentalism, used for very conservative ends – says Prof. Andrzej Walicki

Editorial..... 3

Focus on

Janusz A. Siedlecki..... 4
Medicine Cancer – 200 Different Diseases

Lech M. Nijakowski..... 8
Sociology The Ordinarity of Genocide

Magdalena Sidorczuk, Piotr Stankiewicz..... 12
Geology Tapping Deep into Public Emotions

Jacek Nowak..... 16
Medicine Mediating an Immunological Truce

Mirosław Miętus..... 20
Climatology You're Getting Warmer, You're Getting Colder...

Marek Żukowski..... 24
Physics The Art of Entanglement

Małgorzata Fuszara..... 28
Sociology A Superficial Equality?

Ryszard Szarfenberg..... 31
Social Policy Poverty: a Test of Democracy

Research in Progress

Magdalena Witek..... 34
Biology Ants and Their Uninvited Guests

Andrzej M. Oleś..... 37
Physics Can a Crystal Be Frustrated?

Agata Plesnar-Bielak..... 40
Biology Progeny Above All

Briefly Speaking

Andrzej Walicki..... 42
Our Own Tyranny

Insight

Jacek Niemiec..... 48
Hunting for the Highest Energies

Short Circuit

Lech Mróz..... 47
"Rom" or "Cygan"?

Marek Abramowicz..... 50
Amicus Plato...

Cover: Dariusz Iwański (Pracownia Iwański) from the PIG-PIB collections
Page 2: Jakub Ostalowski (2), archives of Prof. Andrzej Oleś